If you have ever wondered what American Red Cross does and how we respond to all types of disasters, then now is your chance to find out! Red Cross Madera and Mariposa Counties will be hosting a morning full of Red Cross information on local and national deployments. Find out what you can do in-person and virtually to help your communities prepare, respond, and recover from a disaster. no matter your vaccination status (there are some mask restrictions on deployments).

- 9:00 AM - Red Cross Orientation:
The Red Cross helps millions of clients in many different lines of service
- 10:00 AM - Break Out Sessions with the Real Heroes of the Red Cross, our very own Madera/Mariposa Volunteers:
Talk to Red Cross Volunteers that have gone on local and national deployments
- 11:00 AM - Come Join the Team:
You can meet with our recruiters and get started with the application process

Don't miss this opportunity to serve your community, both locally and nationally, and bring a friend or two!
